8. You have to set up your browser to use the proxy service. You may refer to the proxy setting with different browsers at ICCE's website.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying `www.lib.iium.edu.my/index.jsp?module=ROOT&action=proxy_guide.jsp`. The page title is "Library Research Gateway". On the left is a dark red sidebar menu with the following items: "My Digital Account" (with sub-items: Login, New User Sign Up, Forget Password), "Digital Library" (with sub-items: Contents Page, Examination Paper, Faculty Publication, IIUM in the News, IIUM Publication, IIUM Theses, Islamic Economics, Islamic Education, Islamic Law, Manuscript), "Searching Tools" (with sub-items: One Stop Search, Taxonomy Browser), and "PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS" (with sub-item: Degree Programmes). The main content area is titled "NEW USER SIGN UP" and "OFF CAMPUS ACCESS TO THE ONLINE DATABASES." It contains a paragraph about database accessibility and a section "1. Set up your browser to use proxy service" which includes a list of links for different browser configurations (Dialup Broadband, DSL, and Safari on Mac OS). A note states: "You might not be able to use the proxy if you are accessing from private network connection that restricts the use of proxy. Sorry for any inconveniences." Below this is section "2. Connecting to Online Databases" with a link to "How to use online databases from outside IIUM Campus". The bottom of the page features a teal navigation bar with links for "PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS", "CURRENT STUDENTS", "PARENTS & FAMILIES", "RESEARCHERS & LECTURERS", "ALUMNI RESOURCES", and "BUSINESS & GOVERNMENT ORGANISATIONS". The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom.

OFF CAMPUS ACCESS TO THE ONLINE DATABASES.

All web-accessible databases which IIUM Library subscribes are available throughout the campus. Depending on license agreements and copyright restrictions, the databases are not accessible from outside the campus. There are also some databases that still require a username and password even though you are inside the campus.

Configuration of the web browser only need to be done once. Below is the instruction on how to connect if you are off campus.

1. Set up your browser to use proxy service

These examples show how to set up proxy for different browsers. Click on the link below to open pdf files.

- If you are connected using Dialup Broadband (Maxis/Celcom/Digi and etc)
- If you are connected using DSL, Cable, Network connection.
- Proxy Server Configuration for Safari - Mac OS

You might not be able to use the proxy if you are accessing from private network connection that restricts the use of proxy. Sorry for any inconveniences.

2. Connecting to Online Databases

Once the proxy server has been configured, point your browser at the IIUM Library Homepage .Log in to the Digital Library Services using your username which is your barcode number and password which is your library PIN number. Click on the link below to open pdf file.
